Hello aerie 3389. So good to be talking with you. Well, here it is November Isn't this time of year so cool You have your Halloween your Thanksgiving your Christmas I myself enjoy this time of year. Okay what do you say we get into it.

I have to first Talk about yesterday and last night We had dinner And a Halloween Party and it was so much fun. First, I want to thank the crew that cooked us a fine meal That would be Troy Miguel AL and Andrea. Thank you all so much Well we had a witch with zipper on your face We had some redneck there we even had Pancho Villa stop in a little later and his mustache was in the right spot. That was an inside joke. I really want to thank everyone who showed up last night I really do miss our Gatherings like that.

All right October's in the books now we're into November We have a couple things scheduled up for y'all First we have Are burger nights actually there's only one Burger night this month and that's going to be November 14 The other burger night would have fallen on Thanksgiving Day on the 28th. Okay and now we have the Thanksgiving dinner scheduled up For you and that is going to be on the 23rd And that is being done by Russell Now most of you know like I do Russell knows his way around the kitchen. So, I wouldn't miss that one if I was you. All right next we got November 30th for Jessica Calloway Now there's another crew that really knows their way around the kitchen and a barbecue.

All right there's our Lineup for November. As you can tell it's a little slim. You know we are still looking for volunteers. If you do not have a Crew Myself and the other officers will do everything, we can to put one together for you. You know it doesn't have to be a huge dinner, Simple is good, sometimes less is more. You know I do believe If you volunteer One time it wouldn't be the last time You will have some fun and you will also Get some satisfaction from it.

All right I think I've talked long enough until next month be kind to each other check on your neighbors remember we're all in this together.

Your president
Kelly
