Dear Aerie Members,

Hello, my fellow Eagles. I hope everyone was able to stay a little dry through these rain storms. Speaking of wind, I have to report of some damage that occurred around the property. During that wind and rain storm a section of fence was blown down, fortunately, if I can say it that way it came down in separate panels with little damage to the material itself will be able to be reused, so we got off easy as compared to other properties around town, so please say a prayer for those who had damage or loss of property due to these storms, Mother Nature right.

Alright on to some good news, as you look around the Aerie you will notice some new faces. So please make our new members feel welcome, introduce yourselves, talk to them, get to know them. Our membership is on the rise, we're not at pre-pandemic levels, but with all of your help we are getting there.

Next, I would like to remind everybody, as if I need to remind anybody of Super Bowl on February 12th. Now I know our Super Bowl get together is not as big as other places, but that's a good thing, more personalized attention, quicker service with that great Super Bowl vibe in the air. So come on in and have a beer, some food, and a lot of fun. Go Eagles right.

Lastly look at the calendar for dinners, burger nights, dart tournaments. Mark your calendars and come in for some food and fun. I look forward to seeing all of you. You know, all of you make my day when you come through those doors ready for fun.

Enjoy the New Year.

Your Worthy President
Kelly
