Worthy President's Message

Dear Aerie and Auxiliary Members,

Well, here we are rolling thru March and heading toward April. Hope all is well with you! First of all, our fellow Eagle, Sue Lynam, has been quite ill. I'm not sure when she will return. Everybody keep her in your thoughts and send positive energy her way!

On Saturday, March 17th Russell and his mon, Ann, Owen Betts and Carol Haskin put out their Corned Beef and Cabbage Dinner. It was a good turnout! Thanks you folks! Russell and Crew will be serving their great breakfast on Sunday, March 25th- Always very good! Debbie Garrison will be tending bar again. Stop by for some great food and order some of Debbie's great Bloody Mary's!

There is an Enchilada Dinner planned for Saturday, April 7th Bob Betts, Kelly and Crew will be putting it on. Please come and Enjoy! Everybody remember Darts on Sundays and Kelly's Margarita Special on Wednesdays and Polish Dogs on Friday.

If any members have any concerns, suggestions or complaints, Please feel free to attend a meeting, (the second and fourth Monday at 6:30 pm) or get a hold of me via Phone.

Fraternally yours,

Chuck Frilot (805) 541-8152

Worthy President

Note from the Aerie: Please folks if you sign-up for a dinner and cannot attend, let the Aerie know (805-541-3002) as soon as possible that you won't be attending.

Madam President's Message

Hi Everyone,

NY Sue as you probably have heard has been quite ill, (but recovering) so I am writing this to relieve some of her duties.

The ladies Auxiliary had a meeting on Monday March 19th to have an official ballot to decide what will happen with the Auxiliary this next year, the attendance was OK but it was a unanimous decision that we will surrender the Auxiliary Charter.... You will be receiving a mailing to make your personal decision on what you want to do, so please be sure and return this mailing, so you can be heard...

This month at the Aerie Sat. April 7th Bob B & Kelly will be doing Enchilada Dinner quite delicious in my opinion... On Sat. April 21st Russell will be doing his Fish, Shrimp and Chips Dinner and on Sunday April 29th his regular Breakfast... Get Well soon NY Sue.....
